Section 344 of the Code of Criminal Procedure of the State of New York

Section 344 of the Code of Criminal Procedure of the State of New York reads as follows:

> "§ 344 When and in what cases, indictment may be removed before trial.
> A criminal action, prosecuted by indictment, may, at any time before trial on the application of the defendant or the district attorney, be removed from the court in which it is pending, as provided in this chapter, in the following cases:
> 1. From a county court to a term of the supreme court held in the same county, for good cause shown;
> 2. From the supreme court, or a county court, to a term of the supreme court held in another county, on the ground that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had in the county where the indictment is pending. When an action is ordered removed on application of the district attorney, the court granting such application may impose such appropriate conditions as it deems equitable to insure that such removal does not impose an unreasonable burden upon the defendant in making his defense. Any additional cost to the people incurred in compliance with such order shall be a county charge on the county in which the indictment was pending."

Section 749-aa of the Judiciary Law of the State of New York

§ 749-aa. Special jurors in certain counties

1. List of special jurors. The county clerk of each county of the state having a population of one million or more inhabitants, according to the last preceding federal census, shall select from the persons qualified to serve as trial jurors in such county such number of special jurors as the justices of the appellate division of the supreme court, or a majority of them of the department in which such county is situated shall, from time to time direct. The names of the persons so selected liable to serve as special jurors shall be entered in suitable books alphabetically arranged, with their places of business and the residence of each. Such county clerk, from time to time, may cancel such selection and strike the names of such special jurors from such list and select other special jurors in their places. Persons who are selected as aforesaid by such clerk to act as special jurors shall be exempt from all other jury duty from and after the date of their selection, and they shall remain so exempt so long as they continue to be such special jurors.

2. Persons ineligible. No person shall be selected as such special juror who is by law disqualified or who claims and is allowed exemption from service as a trial juror, or who has been convicted of a criminal offense, or found guilty of fraud or other misconduct by the judgment of any civil court or who possesses such conscientious opinions with regard to the death penalty as would preclude his finding a defendant guilty if the crime charged be punishable with death, or who doubts his ability to lay aside an opinion or impression formed from newspaper reading or otherwise, or to render an impartial verdict upon the evidence, uninfluenced by any such opinion or impression, or whose opinion as to circumstantial evidence is such as would prevent his finding a verdict of guilty upon such evidence, or who avows such a prejudice against any law of the state as would preclude his finding a defendant guilty of a violation of such law, or who avows such a prejudice against any particular defense to a criminal charge as would prevent his giving a fair and impartial trial upon the merits of such defense, or who avows that he cannot in all cases give to a defendant who fails to testify as a witness in his own behalf the full benefit of the statutory provision that such defendant's neglect or refusal to testify as a witness in his own behalf shall not create any presumption against him.

3. Examination as to fitness; subpoena; punishment for disobedience. No person shall be selected as a special juror until he shall have been examined personally by the county clerk, his deputy or secretary as to his qualification and fitness to serve as a special jurior. Such county clerk may issue a subpoena requiring any person within such county to attend before him, his deputy or secretary at a time specified for the purpose of testifying concerning the qualification or fitness of himself or any other person to serve as a special juror, and the propriety of the selection of such special juror. A person so subpoenaed must attend and testify accordingly. In case of his failure to attend and testify as required by such subpoena, or a refusal to be sworn, or to answer any legal or pertinent question, he shall be punished therefor by any justice of the supreme court as a contempt of court. All of the provisions of sections four hundred four through four hundred fourteen of the civil practice act, sections twenty-five and twenty-six of the civil rights law, are made applicable to the enforcement of the provisions of this subsection, except that no fees are required to be paid to any person so subpoenaed. The county clerk, in the record made by him of the jurors selected as such special jurors, shall enter the age of each special juror so selected, his business or vocation, if any, the length of his residence in the state and county and, if naturalized, the date of his naturalization. Such record shall be a public record and shall be open to inspection.

4. Application for special jury. Whenever an issue of fact has arisen in any civil or criminal action triable in a county embraced within the provisions of this section, the district attorney, or the defendant, if in a criminal action, or either party in a civil action may apply for a special jury to try such issue. Such application may be made at any term of the supreme court appointed to be held within the county where such issue is triable, or at any term of any other court of record in which court such issue is to be tried. It must be upon the indictment, the plea thereto and an affidavit in a criminal action or the pleadings and affidavit in a civil action upon two days' notice to the adverse party or his attorney. Where, upon such application, it appears to the court that by reason of the importance or intricacy of the case, a special jury is required, or that the subject-matter of the indictment or the issue to be tried has been so widely commented upon that the court is satisfied that an ordinary jury cannot without delay and difficulty be obtained to try such issue, or that for any other reason the due, efficient and impartial administration of justice in the particular case would be advanced by the trial of such an issue by a special jury, the court to which the motion is made may make an order directing that such trial be had by a special jury, and such trial shall be had accordingly. The order must specify the time when the drawing of such special jury shall take place and the number of special jurors to be then drawn, the term of the court and particular day in the term when such special jury must attend. The day so specified for the attendance of the special jury must, except in the case of an order for additional special jurors drawn under subsection six of this section, be at least five days in addition to any Sunday, holiday or half-holiday, after the day specified for the drawing of the special jury.

5. Drawing; notification of jurors. At the time specified in the order the special jury shall be drawn at the office of the county clerk as provided in section six hundred and two of this chapter. A minute of the drawing must be kept by the county clerk, or his deputy, which must be entitled in the action in which the jury is to serve specifying the term of court and the particular day in the term when the special jurors so drawn must attend; and there must be entered thereon the name of each juror drawn. Such minute must be signed by the judge or justice and by the county clerk, or his deputy, present at the drawing and such minute so signed must be filed in the office of such county clerk. Such county clerk must notify each juror therein named in the manner provided for trial jurors, except that provisions as to intervals of time with regard to the notification of trial jurors shall not apply. Before the day specified for the attendance of the special jurors the county clerk must file with the clerk of the trial court, part or term at which the juror is required to attend, a certified copy of the minute with a return indorsed thereon or annexed thereto specifying the manner in which each juror was notified and the time and place of the service of such notice. Such return shall be presumptive evidence of the fact of such service. An affidavit of the person by whom such service shall have been made, stating the manner, time and place of such service shall accompany such return.

6 Additional jurors; drawing. If the panel of the special jurors thus drawn shall be exhausted before a jury is completed, or if the trial court shall be of the opinion that additional special jurors will probably be needed to complete the jury, the trial court may, from time to time, direct that such additional special jurors be drawn for the trial as it may deem expedient. The order must specify the number to be drawn, the time of the drawing and the time when such additional jurors shall be required and notified to attend. Such additional drawing shall be made by the same officers authorized to draw the special jurors, either in open court in the presence of the judge or justice presiding at the trial, or at the office of the county clerk as prescribed in such order, and shall be conducted in the same manner as the original drawing and a minute thereof kept and certified as prescribed for the original drawing and the jurors so drawn shall be summoned in the same manner as those originally drawn.

7. Challenges; trial. The parties to such an action shall have the same number of peremptory challenges and the same challenges for cause to be tried in the same manner as upon a trial with an ordinary jury. The rulings of the trial court, however, in admitting or excluding evidence upon the trial of any challenge for actual bias shall not be the subject of exception. Such rulings and the allowance or disallowance of the challenge shall be final. Upon the formation of a special jury as hereinbefore provided the issue must be tried by such jury as prescribed by the code of criminal procedure or the civil practice act with respect to a jury trial in a criminal or civil action with an ordinary jury.

8. Revision of list. In each county of the state to which this section applies, the names selected and composing the special jury list heretofore compiled, shall be the special jury list for such county subject to such revision thereof by striking therefrom and adding thereto the names of such jurors as from time to time the county clerk shall deem proper.

9. Appellate division to make rules. The justices of the appellate division of the supreme court of the department embracing the county in which such special jury list shall be constituted shall make such rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this section as shall be necessary to regulate the making of the application for a special jury under the provisions of this section for the drawing and attendance of such jurors and for the proper and efficient enforcement of the provisions of this section.

10. Violations of section or rules, penalty. Any violation of this section, or of such rules and regulations prescribed by the appellate division of the supreme court shall be deemed a contempt of court under section seven hundred fifty of the judiciary law and such rules and regulations may be enforced as if a violation thereof were such a contempt as provided by section seven hundred fifty-one of the judiciary law.
